GMA calls for calm at Korle -Bu

The Ghana Medical Association (GMA) is calling for an amicable settlement of the impasse between management and staff of the Korle Bu Teaching Hospital. This comes as the senior staff association and registered nurses embarked on a demonstration last week demanding the removal of the Korle Bu CEO Gilbert Buckle. Dr Buckle is accused of mismanaging the hospital and misappropriating funds, allegations he has denied. An administrative enquiry is however in place to ascertain the veracity of the claims. The Senior Staff Association claimed that the CEO has been a...
